Exam S1

Q 1. Mohamed is going to give a presentation for the first time. Given that the subject is 'Artificial Intelligence', briefly give him the needed steps, with examples if possible, for the presentation.

5 pt

- a. Greet the attendees and introduce yourself (exp., Dear attendees, thanks for being here today. I am Mohammed a student.....).
- b. Introduce the subject and outline the plan (exp., Today, I'd like to talk to you about a very important subject which is Artificial Intelligence. My presentation consists of the following parts...)
- c. Present the core of the subject (...)
- d. Draw conclusions (exp., Let's summarize briefly what we've looked at)
- e. Thank the audience and close the speech (exp., Thank you for your attention).

Q 2. Making shifts in your speech, such as 'In addition' and 'Furthermore', is an essential act during the presentation. Explain How?

2 pt

Some people tune out at certain parts, because people have short attention spans. Marking a shift in topics is a great way to 'win back' those who have tuned out.

Q 3. Write an informal email (3-5 lines) to your friend Khaled telling him that you want to buy a computer and you need his help.

4 pt

Holaaaa Khled, you good? I'd like to tell u that I gonna buy a new computer and I need your help wid dat man. C u at the univ. peace.

Q 4. What are the main differences between 'Academic' and 'Creative' writing.

4 pt

Academic	Creative
1- Formal 2- Tied to paragraph writing rules. 3- Uses evidences and proofs. 4- Straight forward (direct)	1- Informal 2- no restrictions about the structure of writing 3- based on opinions and imagination 4- metaphoric and symbolic (indirect)

Q 5. Write a small paragraph about 'Fruits' using 'Academic' style.

Fruits are considered as essential to human health. They are important sources of vitamins and carbohydrates like fiber and sugar. There exists a wide variety of fruits. Different fruits contain different vitamins, so it is important to eat different fruits. Recent studies have demonstrated that fruits help to heal some diseases such as flu.

4 pt

p.s. 1 point for the clear handwriting.
