

Chapter Terms

Authentication	session
session_start	isset
Session properties	$_SESSION
Verification code	.{8,}
?=.\d	?=.[A-Z]
?=.*[a-z]	header
array_keys	password_hash
password_verify	non-registered users
$_SERVER['REMOTE_ADDR']	registration page
preg_match	strlen
file_get_contents	preg_quote
preg_replace	expire passwords
Password sniffer programs	limited number of attempts
Timeout period	strtotime
SQL Injection

Chapter Questions and Projects

Multiple Choice

- Authentication does which of the following?
 - Provides security for an application.
 - Verifies user IDs and passwords.
 - Should use encrypted passwords.
 - All of the above.
- Sessions do which of the following?
 - Are created using the `session_create` method
 - Allow the sharing of information between programs
 - Don't provide any security benefits
 - All of the above
- Registration pages do which of the following?
 - Allow the users to create their own user IDs and passwords
 - Can be used to gather information about the users
 - Should encrypt the password before storing it
 - All of the above
- Verification code does which of the following?
 - Uses `session_start` to attach the program to a current session
 - Verifies that a user has logged in